

Kay Duncan

Singer / Songwriter

Bio 2026/7

Kay is a Kiwi Singer/Songwriter/ Interdisciplinary Visual artist and Poet based in Christchurch.

Her melodies are powerful, soulful, and are abundant with emotive undercurrent. She is a storyteller with thought provoking lyrics and she likes to keep real and authentic. With her strong vocals and unique mix of soulful, blues, alt-folk and jazz her music has a broad appeal.

Originally from the naval port Island city of Portsmouth in England, Kay began performing and writing songs when she was 11 years old and enjoyed performing in local clubs there.

She was the lead singer in the Christchurch jazz band “The Flying Dixies”, also performing Solo, Duo with Pianist Guy Hobson.

Now with her band - ‘The Kay Duncan Band’, they have performed locally at numerous events including the Summertimes Event in Hagley Park, and the Jazz & Blues festival in Oamaru. Also they are working towards regular concerts, festivals and performances.

Her music has been played on local Radio Stations and on Radio Stations in the USA that streams Worldwide.

Her Debut album ‘Interstellar Refugee’ -available on most streaming services, was released in 2022. She is currently recording a Blues genre album and 2 multi genre albums.